

BIG Summer Fun

The Alice Cogswell Center and the Early Learning Center at the Ohio School for the Deaf is offering an education opportunity for Deaf/Hard of Hearing children ages 2-10 years old. Preschool classes (age 3 to before kindergarten), will be taught by teachers of the Deaf, and the toddler and school age program will be led by certified para-professionals. There will be thematic educational weeks, and extended learning weeks that will incorporate new vocabulary, STEAM activities, sign language, lots of learning, and even more BIG FUN! Hearing children will be accepted on a limited basis for an opportunity to learn American Sign Language.
